

You'll love our new look.

Aurelia® Distinct™ Honeycomb® textured powder free latex

And appreciate our same great quality.

Aurelia® examination gloves have a new, contemporary look with the same comfort and quality you have grown to trust. Aurelia, the leader in exam gloves, has also created new brands and products to address your individual preferences. Like the new Protégé™ stretch nitrile powder free. And the patented Refresh™ Honeycomb® Textured peppermint flavored powder free latex. Our Velocity™ triple-cleansed powder free latex delivers maximum purity. The ultra-ergonomic Dimensions™ fitted powder free latex offers extraordinary comfort with hand-specific and half-sizes.

For bright, innovative ideas, Aurelia is the industry leader, hands down. Aurelia gloves are available through your preferred distributor. For more information, visit www.aureliagloves.com.
